HERE IS A VILLAIN

He Ruins a Child Yet Wearing Short Dresses

WHO LIVED AT BYRON CENTER

But Who Was Adopted Into His Family, at Cooper-The Child to Become a Mother-Suit Begun.

KALAMAZOO, Jan. 27, -A terrible case came to light yesterday the details of which are recited in an affidavit accompanying a capias on which James Jordan Carpenter of Cooper, was arrested. Carpenter is a married man aged about 70 years and is the owner of a valuable farm. A few years ago a black-eyed little girl named Martha J. Heffner, whose home was in Byron township, Kent county, went to live with Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter. They had promised to care for and protect the little girl and see that she received a good education. The girl's mother is Mrs. Tillotson Terrell of Byron, and she makes affidavit that Carpenter caused her daugittar's ruin, and as the result she is about to become a mother.

ane alleges further that he commanded her to leave her household duties during the absence of Mrs. Carpenter and accompany him to the parfor, and after she was found to be in trouble it is claimed that he told her to say that she was out picking bernes hen a man who was carrying a gun came along and committed a criminal assault upon her. He gave her $5 in money. She left the Carpenter home ast October and has since been with her nother, but not nothi recently would the make these statements. When she went away Carpenter gave her $3 and has since sent her same money. The old gentleman has also attempted to visit her, but her mother has prevented an interview. The girl's guardian, Mr. B. McNeal of Byron Center, was here yesterday in the interest of the case and the welfare of the girl. The affidavit was made by W. A. Tatem of Grand Rapids who is attorney for the plaintiff. The capias was served yesterday afternoon by Sheriff Downey and the respondent appeared before Circuit Commissioner Frost and gave ball in the sum of $5000. The amount of damages claimed is not stated in the affidavit. The girl in question is described as a bright intelligent miss who still wears short dresses. She will be fifteen years old next September.

PASTOR AND PEOPLE

Have a Lively Tilt Over an Operatic Production.

Iosta, Mich., Jan. 27 .- Trouble is on in this town and no mistake, and it has all grown out of the intended production of the innocent opera "Pinafere," which is to be presented here tomorrow night by an amateur combination, assisted by a few "professors" from out-side. The pastor of the Methodist church, the Key. L. E. Lenex, chided one of his members who was to take part in the play. The member couldn't see wherein his soul would be seriously blackened by participating in the charitable operatio production and so told the elder, and preparations for the play went on. Then comes the reverend gentleman with a column article in the local press and denounces the whole thing in stinging words. This was replied to by the committee, one of whom is a member of the church, in an equally clinching and wordy rejoinder, and the fight may now be said to be on.

SENT HIS CONDOLENCES

Over the Death of the Highest Officer of the Royal Arcanum.

GRAND HAVEN, Jan. 27.—Grand Regent Parish yesterday received a telegram announcing the death of Charles F. Loring, supreme regent of the Royal Arcanum of the United States, last night, and he sent the following in re-"W. O. Robinson, grand secretary Royal Arcannm, Beaton, Mass:

We learn with deep sorrow of the death of Brother Charles F. Loring, supreme regent of the Royal Arcanum. Held universally in such high esteem, his loss is irreparable. Please convey to the family of the deceased our heartfeit sympathy in their sad bereavement and assure them of our mouraful share in their great grief. Thomas A. Parish, grand regent of Michigan.'

The Royal Arcanum has a member-ship of over 140,000 in the United States and between 8000 and 9000 in the state of Michigan.

SHE HAD A SPASM.

A Traveling Man's Claims for a Divorce. PONTIAC, Jan. 27 -- Ezen C. Guild, a well known traveling salesman, has begun proceedings in a Cieveland court to obtain a divorce, alleging fraud in she marriage contract. Mrs. Guild is an inmate of the seylum here, where she has spent the past year. The two were married in Michigan twenty-four years ago. Unifit claims that prior to marriage they were sleigh riding and she had a spaam. He asked if ane was accustomed to that sort of thing and she said "no." So also did her parents assure him. After marriage he discovered that she was a confirmed epileptic and had had a sister die of the disease, and that finally she had become hopelessly insane.

PROSECUTOR ON HIS METTLE.

He Brings Suit for Slander Because of Bribery Charges.

An Sanne, Mich., Jan. 27 .- Prosecut ing Attorney Connine has caused the arrest of Lewis and Mores Marks on a charge of slander in stating that they paid Mr. Connine a sum of money if ne would not push the case against their brother. Harry Marks, who was convicted of burglary and granted a new trial. Justice lineare has ordered the trial to begin Thursday.

Kirby is Arraigned.

Mansmall, Mich., Jan. 27.—Eugene J. Eirby, Marshall's embezzling bank cathier, was arraigned today before Justice Miller. The charge is under the state law and alleges forcery, S. T. Dubbins being the complaining witness. Kirtly waived examination and was bound over to the circuit court in $10,000 bart. It is not thought he will be able to furnish ball, and he will probably spend the time until his trial in confinement. What will be done with he charge against him for violation of the federal banking statute is not an-Prospective Duel at St. Louis. Sr. Louis, Jan. 27 .- Considerable extement prevails in German and French circles in the northern part of the city over a prospective duel be-tween two well-known residents of that lotality. Yesterday J. M. DeLotz sent to George C. Snyder the usual note demanding such satisfaction as only gentlemen can give and receive where bonor is in question. The affair was referred to mutual friends to arrange details of the meeting. The trouble grows out of a dispute over a game of cards.

"Licked" Their Boys.

THREE RIVERS, Mich., Jan. 27 .- Certain fond parents of the Second ward school were greatly incensed at Prof. James A. King last week because he flogged their boys. Three of them attempted to secure his arrest. The members of the school board backed the professor up vigorously, and the Chilian lever of the parents has become so much reduced that they have apparently abandoned their design.

Struck by a Tree.

Owesso, Mich., Jan. 27 .- While chopping down a dead tree near Burton vestertay, Irving Hubbell was fatally injured by the tree falling and hitting him on the head. His skull was frac-tured and although now alive, he is nuconscious and his death is hourly expected.

Jackson's Kite-Shaped Track.

Jackson, Jan. 27.—At a meeting of the Jackson County Driving club last evening it was decided to build a kiteshape mile track, and to accomplish this object the directors were authorited to disband the organization and disburse the funds in the treasury. The intention is to organize with capital of
